

Arsenal Group's Picnic Today

The inspection division of the Joliet Arsenal Ordnance ammunition center will have a family picnic and outing today at Inwood park, beginning at 1 p.m.

There will be two softball games, one at 2 p.m. and another at 3 p.m. Later games will be played in which the entire family can participate. Thruout the day there will be horseshoes, croquet, tennis and golf. Lunch will be served at 5 p.m.

W. K. Kirkham is general chairman and other committees will be Frank Mores and William Simple, refreshments; Jean Thornton, Beverlee Evans and Nancee Shreeve, food; Ollie Croucher and Nancee Shreeve, games; Jo Ann Peters, utensils; and Diane Ferris, prizes.

Judges for the events will be Eloise Hansen, Caroline Kirkham, Peggy Croucher, Winifred Baenteli, Lois Sisler, Joseph L. Flynt and Homer Fries. Ronald Thorsen and Gene Decker will be the softball game umpires. More than 20 prizes will be awarded thruout the day and refreshments will be served.